SKATING NOTES

Bulanhagui began skating at age 6 because her father and brother took her to Penn's Landing in Philadelphia, Pa. ... Her brother, Ed, continually beat her in races, so she kept skating to be faster than him.

PERSONAL NOTES

Bulanhagui attends Newark High School in Newark, Del. ... Earned the 2006 All-American Scholar Award and was a nominee for 2007 Young Leaders of America ... Has skated in shows supporting Hurricane Katrina, Blades Against AIDS and Edge Out Of Cancer ... Also works on food drives for her church and attended Buddy Bear Camp, which sends disabled children to a camp ... Volunteered at Harlan Elementary School to present the sport of figure skating on career day ... Hobbies include attending her high school's football and girls' soccer games, competitive cheerleading tryouts, working out, running, school dances, Newark Nights, photography and having fun with friends and family ... Favorite country to travel to is Italy because the sights were beautiful and the shopping was amazing ... What sets her apart from others is her ability to hit more curbs than anyone else while driving, tripping while walking and her obnoxious laugh ... Prizes her faith above all ... Says not many people know she still watches the Disney Channel ... Biggest life-defining moment was sending a disabled child to camp and receiving a standing ovation at the U.S. Championships after her short program ... Would like to be on "The Price is Right" because, "It's everyone's goal to make it on that show, I like guessing prices, and I'm a HUGE fan of Bob" ... Would like to meet speed skater Joey Cheek because he is one of her favorite athletes who donates some of his earnings from the Olympic Winter Games to charity ... Listens to the Dream Girls soundtrack, MC Supreme, North Side and many more ... Motto is "There's no trying; there is just doing".

SKATING NOTES

Goals for the season are to achieve as much as she can while continuing to learn and improve her skills and presentation under the ISU judging system ... Wants to be competitive as a U.S. senior lady and internationally on the junior level ... Began skating at age 4 after watching a summer skating show ... Her dad took her to the local mall to shop for a birthday gift for her grandfather, and they came home with skating lessons instead of a gift ... Was the 2004 U.S. intermediate pairs champion with former partner Andrew Speroff.

PERSONAL NOTES

Will compete as a senior nationally and a junior internationally ... Was on the 2004-2005 and 2005-2006 Academic and Leadership Honor Roll for 4.0 grade point average for all quarters in junior high

... Recipient of the Presidential Fitness Award ... Volunteers at her rink in the learn-to-skate program ... Most prized possessions are a gold heart necklace that her parents gave her for passing her gold senior moves in the field test and the matching gold heart earrings they gave her for recently passing her senior gold free skate test ... The hearts symbolize "Skating with Heart" ... Hobbies include tennis, piano, surfing, boogie boarding and any beach activity when she's back in Del Mar, Calif., ... At the age of 3, knew more Spanish than English ... Grandfather was a national fencing champion ... Wants to meet John Wooden because he's had such broad life experiences and Lance Armstrong because of his motivation and strength to combat cancer and be an elite athlete ... Has two Old English sheepdogs, Lucy and Ethel, named for the main female characters on "I Love Lucy" (her favorite reruns) ... Says the dogs get in as much trouble as their TV human counterparts ... Favorite food is her mom's homemade pesto ravioli with fresh tomatoes.

SKATING NOTES

Goal for the 2007-2008 season is to make the Grand Prix Final and World Team ... Began skating at age 6 when she followed her older sister, Natalie, to skating lessons after watching the 1994 Olympic Winter Games ... Skating was a reprieve from the chaos of a house under repair after a major Northridge, Calif., earthquake ... At the time, she was also a gymnast, but she chose skating two years later when combining the schedules became too demanding ... Landed her first triple Lutz-triple loop combination in competition at the 2003 U.S. Championships; it was the first time a U.S. woman landed the combination in competition... Former coaches include Tiffany Chin from 1994-2004 and Christy Ness from 2004-2005.

PERSONAL NOTES

Has won numerous piano awards, the latest being a bronze medal from the Southern California Junior Bach Festival in September 2002 ... She learned her first Mozart concerto at age 6, only half a year after starting lessons ... She performed as the soloist with the Pasadena Summer Youth Orchestra when she was 9 ... SKATING NOTES

Goal for the 2007-08 season is to improve her skating both artistically and technically. ... Began skating at age 6 ... Her three older brothers played hockey, and one put old hockey skates on her and took her outside to try them out because her backyard froze over one winter ... Participated in the U.S. Figure Skating Basic Skills Program from 1996-1998 ... Successfully landed a triple Axel at the 2005 U.S. Championships, making her only the second U.S. lady to land the jump in competition; the first was Tonya Harding at the 1991 U.S. Championships – Meissner was only 18 months old at the time ... Age kept her from competing in the 2005 World Championships after she finished third at the 2005 U.S. Championships ... In winning the 2006 World Championships became the seventh youngest woman in the world to do so ... Is one of only six ladies in history to have won a novice, junior and senior title at the U.S. Championships.

PERSONAL NOTES

Will attend the University of Delaware part-time beginning in fall 2007; hopes to major in something science-related ... Supports the Cool Kids Campaign, which benefits pediatric oncology patients at Johns Hopkins and University of Maryland hospitals ... Biggest life-defining moment was when a close friend passed away from leukemia after receiving a bone marrow transplant in March 2004 ... At a Cool Kids social event with current patients she even signed one child's head upon his request, which was bald because of cancer treatments ... Also designed a "Triumph" bracelet to help raise money for the organization and more than 15,000 have been sold ... Prepares care packages for pediatric cancer patients, which include everything from pajamas to iPods ... Went on a bobsled run while in Lake Placid, N.Y., for an exhibition ... Was the grand marshal of two Independence Day parades on July 4, 2006 ... Met
